

candidates at large shall be put at the head of each group, and the names of the other candidates, with their places of residence, including the numbers of the Congressional district in which they reside, shall follow in numerical order. The surname of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be placed above the group of candidates for elections of such party. There shall be left at the right of the surname of the candidates for President and Vice-President, so formed as to include both names, and to the right of the name of each Elector, a sufficient clear square in which each voter may designate, by a cross (X), his choice for Electors. All candidates for office shall, as far as possible, be placed in one column, but where the names to be printed upon the ticket are over thirty-six, then another column shall be added in which names shall be printed, and when two or more columns are used the same number of names shall, as far as possible, be printed in each column, and the initial letter of the given or Christian name of the several candidates in each column shall be printed directly beneath each other in a vertical line. A Constitutional Amendment, or any question to be submitted to the popular vote, shall be printed in the same column with the names of the candidates.

Attorney-General to prepare instructions for guidance of voters.

Specimen ballots.

114A. At least thirty days before every State election the Attorney-General shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters of such election, as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion, be necessary and proper. Said instructions shall be furnished by the Secretary of State to the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections, who shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of Sections 61, 62 and 63 of this Article, to be printed in large, clear type, on separate cards, to be called "Cards of Instruction," and said Board of Supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same, with ballots for use in each election precinct. They shall also cause to be printed, on light cardboard or heavy-sized paper, ten or more copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place, at each election therein, of a considerably magnified size, which shall be called "Specimen Ballots," and the same shall be furnished with the other ballots prepared for each voting place. On the morning of said election the said Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place said cards of instruction and largely magnified specimen ballots, and one of said cards of instruction shall
