

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of taking effect in the State of Virginia of an Act embodying the provisions of Sections 52, 54, 8A, 55A and 55B of Article 72 of the Public General Laws of Maryland as enacted by this Act, and of an Act applicable to the waters of the Potomac river embodying the provisions of Sections 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of Article 72 of the Public General Laws of Maryland, as heretofore enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland; provided, that a different arrangement or form in which these provisions shall be enacted by the State of Virginia, or a difference in the penalties prescribed, except in the case of Section 55B, or a difference in the designation of any official charged with duty under any provision of this Act shall not be considered a failure to embody the provisions herein set forth.

When Act becomes operative.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That upon the taking effect in the State of Virginia of the provisions prescribed in the preceding section the Governor of Maryland shall issue his proclamation declaring the provisions of this Act to be effective.

Governor to issue proclamation.

Approved April 7, 1904.

CHAPTER 342.

AN ACT to regulate the building of bridges across the Monocacy river within one and a-half miles of the Iron Stone Ridge, at a point commonly known as Stump's Hill in Frederick County, Maryland, and to enable the County Commissioners of Frederick County to purchase, lease or condemn the stone arch bridge now in course of construction across the Monocacy river in Frederick County, Maryland, at said point, for the use of said county, and to authorize and empower the said County Commissioners to borrow sufficient money on the credit of said county for the purpose of paying for said bridge in case the same is purchased or acquired by the County Commissioners of said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James W. Legore, his heirs and assigns, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to build and construct a bridge or bridges across the Monocacy river at or near the Iron Stone Ridge at a point commonly known as Stump's Hill in Frederick County; provided, that when the Empowered to build a bridge.