

for every share owned by him or her, and every shareholder or stockholder may vote in person or by proxy, and the directors so elected shall serve for one year or until their successors shall be elected; and other meetings of the stockholders may be called by the president and directors or a majority of them, according to such rules as may be adopted by the by-laws of said company, and the board of directors may meet as often as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of said company. Ten days' notice shall be given by publication in two daily newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, of the time and place of the general annual meeting of the stockholders and of the election of directors of the same, as above referred to.

Notice of election of directors.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the directors shall have power to declare such dividends out of the profits of said company as they may deem proper; provided, that no dividends shall be declared when the capital stock shall be imperiled thereby. The directors shall also have power to require payment from each and every stockholder of the amount remaining unpaid on the stock of the company held by such stockholder at such times as they may think proper.

Power to declare dividends.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have and enjoy all the general power, provisions and privileges, and be subject to the general regulations contained in Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, the said Article, known also as the Article providing for the formation, powers and regulations of corporations, so far as the same may not be inconsistent or in conflict with the special or general regulations of provisions, powers, rights and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred by this Act.

Provisions and privileges.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the company hereby incorporated shall have the power to make, construct and maintain a railroad with double or single tracks and sidings, as it may deem expedient, for the transportation of passengers, freight, merchandise and produce in cars, propelled by electricity, in any form, or other improved motive power other than steam, with the right to erect and maintain such poles and wires and appurtenances as may be necessary, and to build the necessary turnouts, bridges, switches, to its car barns and powerhouses in Anne Arundel County, said railroad to begin at a point or points where connections can be made with the United Railways of Baltimore City, or the Curtis Bay branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and continuing thence to Cur-

Right to build and maintain railroad.