

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 395.

AN ACT to repeal Section 63, and to repeal and re-enact Sections 44, 48, 49, 51, 52, 53, 55, 57, 58, 60, 62 and 69, and to amend by adding an additional sub-section to each Sections 59, 71 and 75, all of the aforesaid sections being sections of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," as enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland at its January Session, 1900.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 63 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," be and the same is hereby repealed, and that Sections 44, 48, 49, 51, 52, 53, 55, 57, 58, 60, 62 and 69 of the said Article, title and sub-title, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and that Sections 59, 71 and 75 of the said Article, title and sub-title be and the same are hereby amended by adding a new sub-section to each to follow immediately after the original sections, and to be designated respectively 59 (27), 71 (A) and 75 (24), said amended sections and added sub-sections to stand in the following order and to read as follows:

Record books 44. The Commissioners shall provide and keep three classes of record books: First, the minute books; second, the ordinance books; third, the general record books. They shall also keep an assessment book, and they may keep such other books as may be necessary. The minute books shall contain memoranda and entries showing the proceedings of the Commissioners as they occur. When an ordinance is passed, the minute book shall show its number and title, and shall set forth the number of Commissioners who voted for and the number who voted against it. The minute book shall also show the transactions of the Commissioners, and a memorandum of all contracts entered into by the Commissioners shall be entered in said book, together with the names of the Commissioners who voted for and those who voted against such contract. All ordinances passed by the Commissioners shall be set out in full in the ordinance book, with the proper number affixed thereto and the date of the enactment of such ordinance placed at the end thereof. The Commissioners of Cambridge are hereby declared to have full power and authority to pass all ordinances which have been passed by the said Commissioners, and all ordinances so passed and recorded in the Ordinance book, now in use by the Commissioners, are hereby declared to be valid and in full force and effect. In the general record book shall be recorded all notices, papers, documents, petitions, certificates and other papers connected with the election of Commissioners and other municipal elections, all contracts in full, entered into by the Commissioners with other persons, and all other papers and documents which the Commissioners may order to be recorded therein. Extracts

Cambridge,
Dorchester
County, Md.

Authority to pass all ordinances.