

ine the papers and the other qualifications of each applicant, grade them and certify to the Commissioners a list of all such applicants as possess the moral and physical qualifications and have attained an average of sixty per cent. in the examination, in each case stating the per cent. attained by each applicant. All appointments of policemen shall be made from the list of eligible candidates certified to by the Town Clerk. If there is not a sufficient number of applicants at the first examination to fill all vacancies, a second examination shall be held, and other examinations shall be held until all vacancies on the police force are filled. If any applicant feels himself aggrieved at the average reported by the Town Clerk, he may within three days after the report of the Town Clerk has been filed with the Commissioners, make complaint to the Commissioners, who shall then, after such examination and hearing as they deem sufficient, render such decision as they think proper in the case.

Can appeal to Commissioners.

59 (27). To regulate the use of the streets, lanes and alleys of Cambridge, by telephone, telegraph, electric light and other wires and poles in, over and upon the same, provided that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give the Commissioners of Cambridge the power and authority to impose any license fees upon such wires and poles, or the use of said streets and alleys.

Use of streets,
etc.

60. Each of the five Commissioners of Cambridge shall receive one dollar and fifty cents for each meeting of the said Commissioners which he attends, provided the said Commissioners shall meet at least once in each month, but in no case shall the yearly sum paid to any one Commissioner exceed fifty dollars. The Mayor, in addition to the sum which he receives as Commissioner, shall be paid a further sum of fifty dollars per year as Mayor. Neither the Mayor nor any Commissioner shall receive from the corporate funds any other or further sum of money or compensation than is provided by this section, except such expenses as he may incur in executing some duty as Commissioner.

Compensation of Commissioners.

62. The Commissioners of Cambridge may provide by ordinance for the codification of all the ordinances which have been passed or may hereafter be passed by them, and for the printing of such codification thereof, and the printed copy thereof, issued by the authority and under the sanction of the said Commissioners, shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinances and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.

Codification of ordinances.

69. Between the first day of August and the first day of October in each year, the Commissioners shall make a general levy to meet the corporate expenses of the town, but in no year shall the tax so levied be greater than forty-five cents on the hundred dollars. The Commissioners shall cause an alphabetical list of all persons chargeable with the taxes levied to be made out, together with the sums payable by each person, said list shall be entered in the general record book. At the end of the list, as first made out, and also at the end of the copy in the General levy.