CHAPTER 403.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 116D of Chapter 629 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the Regular Session of 1902, the said section being a new section added by said Act to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled "Charles County," sub-title "La Plata."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 116D of Chapter 629 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the Regular Session of 1902, being a new section added by said Act to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Charles County," sub-title "La Plata," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

116D. No person shall sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in the said town, at any place within a distance of three hundred yards of any church, now or hereafter to be constructed in said town; nor shall any person sell any such liquors within two hundred yards of the County Court House, unless at the time of applying for license therefor he shall file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county an application, in writing, verified by affidavit, stating the exact place at which said liquor is to be sold, the manner of selling the same, as to whether it is to be done in connection with a hotel or otherwise, and bearing the endorsement of the Commissioners of said town and the County Commissioners of Charles County; the aforesaid provisions of this section not to apply, however, to any place where any such liquor is now sold under such license as is provided by law in said town. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense, and upon failure to pay the same, together with the costs of prosecution, shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
