

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 14 and 16 of Chapter 296 of the Acts of 1902, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Birds and Game," be repealed and re-enacted, and that additional sections, to be known as 99B, 99C and 99D, be added to as to read as follows:

"Birds and Game."

Closed season for rabbits, etc.

14. No person shall kill or destroy any rabbit on or after the first day of January until the fifteenth day of October of each and every year, nor any squirrel after the first day of January until the thirty-first day of August of each and every year, under a penalty of five dollars for each rabbit or squirrel so killed or destroyed.

Prohibiting catching of game for shipment from county.

99B. No person or persons, company or corporation, or the agent or the employee thereof, shall at any time catch, take or kill, or have in his or its possession, or under his, her or its control any of the birds or game mammals of this county, the killing of which at any or all times is prohibited by the laws of the county, with intent to ship or remove the same beyond the limits of said county, or with intent to allow or aid in the shipment or removal thereof out of the county. And it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, railroad company, express company, stage driver, or any company or corporation, or person or persons acting in the capacity of a common carrier, their officers or employees, to knowingly receive for transportation or transport, or remove beyond the limits of the county, any of the game birds or game mammals mentioned in this Act. This section not to apply to the buying and selling, shipping or transporting of the pelts or hides of deer or other game mammals during the season when it is lawful to kill or have the same in possession within said county. Any person or persons, railroad company, express company, stage driver, or any company or corporation or persons acting in the capacity of a common carrier, their officers or employees, as set out in the preceding section, shall, upon conviction of violating any of the provisions of Sections 99A and 99B of this Act, shall be fined five dollars for each bird, rabbit or squirrel so shipped, transported or had in possession in violation of the provisions of this Act, and twenty-five dollars for each deer or portion thereof so shipped, transported or had in possession in violation of the provisions of this Act.

Fines.

Non-residents must procure license to hunt.

99C. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to shoot any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, wild turkey, wild water fowl, squirrel, rabbit, wild deer, or any of the game birds or mammals in said county without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of
