

Wild fowl. Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Wild Fowl," as repealed and re-enacted with amendments by Chapter 582 of the Acts of 1892, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and to add a new section to be designated as Section 261A, the aforesaid section to read as follows:

Days on which to gun. 260. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at or shoot any ducks or wild fowl on or over the waters of West river or Rhode river and their creeks, from any booby blind or bush blind, or from the shore of said rivers and creeks, except on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays of each week.

Must have license to place blinds. 261. Before any person shall place any booby blind or bush blind on or upon said waters of West river and Rhode river and shoot therefrom, he shall first obtain a license so to do from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, upon the payment of two dollars for the same, and a fee of fifty cents to said Clerk for issuing the same; and any person so obtaining a license shall have the right over any other person to renew his license from year to year; provided, he secured a new license from the Clerk of said court on or before the fifteenth day of May in each and every year; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the owner of any blind properly licensed from extending the privilege to any person to shoot from said blind on the day the owner thereof is allowed to shoot from the same.

Blinds and decoy ducks. 261A. It shall not be lawful for any person to establish a blind, after said blind has been licensed, at a point in said waters, nearer to said blind than five hundred yards nor further than one hundred yards from low water mark on the Maryland side bordering on said waters; and it shall not be lawful for any person to put out decoy ducks within five hundred yards of any blind and shoot over the same from the natural shores of said waters.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of May, 1904.

Approved April 8, 1904.
