CHAPTER 492.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Birds and Game," to be known as Section 55A, to said Article.

Additional section. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following section, to be known as Section 55A, be added to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Birds and Game:"

Pertaining to partridges. 55A. It shall not be lawful for anyone to trap, snare, net, bag or bunch on the ground with a gun or other firearms, at any time, any partridges in Frederick County, and anyone doing so shall be fined twenty dollars for each bird so taken or killed, and in default of the payment of said fine and the State's costs, shall be committed to the Maryland House of Correction for a period of three months. That the several justices of the peace of Frederick County shall have jurisdiction of violations of this law, and said violations shall be prosecuted in the name of the State of Maryland; and one-half of the fine imposed, when collected, shall be paid to the informer, whether he be an officer or some other person, and the other half to the County Commissioners of Frederick County for the benefit of the public roads of said county; and it is further provided that this Act shall not prevent humane persons trapping partridges to protect them during severe winter weather, and who shall turn them out again after the winter is over.
