

CHAPTER 496.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," to follow Section 241 and to be designated as Section 241A, giving power to the Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock to regulate, license and tax restaurants, breweries and all saloons and other places where malt, spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors are sold.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an additional section be added to Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," to follow Section 241 and to be designated as Section 241A, and to read as follows:

Hancock,
Washington
County, Md.

241A. The Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock be and are hereby authorized and empowered to pass an ordinance or ordinances to regulate, license and tax restaurants, breweries and all saloons and other places where malt, spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors are sold within the corporate limits of the town of Hancock; provided, that no sum smaller than twenty-five dollars and no sum greater than one hundred dollars per annum be charged for any one license; and provided, further, that any ordinance passed in pursuance hereof, the penalty for violation of the same shall not be greater than a fine of one hundred dollars, or in default of payment thereof confinement in the jail of Washington County for a period not exceeding ninety days.

Ordinance to license saloons, etc.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1904.
