

106. The said primary elections shall be held under the auspices of the county committee of the party holding said primary election as at present constituted, for the first election hereunder, and the chairman of said committee shall, by advertisement inserted in at least two newspapers published in said county, once a week for three successive weeks in the month of July in the year in which said primary election is held under this Act (and the chairman of the committee as hereinafter to be formed, shall give the same notice for all primary elections to be held after first such primary election), give notice to all persons desiring to become candidates of said party holding such primary at the succeeding general election, of the time and places of such, and warning such candidates to give said chairman notice in writing of the office for which he shall be a candidate for nomination, which said notice must be given not less than twenty days before the day set for said primary election, and must be accompanied by the fee hereinafter required for the purpose of defraying the expenses of such election; and if said notice from the candidate is not given within the time required, his name shall not appear printed upon the ballot hereinafter required under the designation of office for which he is a candidate, and his name shall not appear as a candidate or nominee of said party for said office upon the ballot used at the succeeding general election. If after due notice no candidate complies with this Act by filing his name for nomination by direct vote, then the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the county committee.

Primary elections.

Vacancy.

107. After notice given to the chairman, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said chairman to have printed on white paper in black ink a ballot conforming to the ballot now used at general elections, with the names of the offices to be filled at the next general election, with the names of the respective candidates for nomination for said offices, arranged in alphabetical order, in groups under the office designated with a square opposite the name of each candidate not less than one inch square, all printing or lettering to be uniform throughout said ballot, all ballots being uniform in size, type, and character throughout said county, and all names of offices and candidates to be printed with capital letters. At the top of each group must be printed how many persons may be voted for, for the respective places. If there shall be more persons voted or marked for any office than there are persons to be voted for at the general election, then the ballot shall be defective as to that particular place or group and the balance of said ballot

Style of ballots to be used.