

WHEREAS, William P. Dodson, of Norfolk, Virginia, erroneously paid to the several collectors of State and county taxes of Talbot County for the years 1899 and 1902 the sum of thirty-five dollars and fifty-six cents as taxes upon a certain mortgage, which under the law was not subject to taxation, owing to the fact that said mortgage was a collateral mortgage, and the mortgagee received no revenue therefrom; and

WHEREAS, The County Commissioners of Talbot County have refunded to the said William P. Dodson the sum of twenty-six dollars and sixty-seven cents, being three-fourths of the said thirty-five dollars and fifty-six cents paid into the treasury of said county, leaving unpaid the sum of eight dollars and eighty-nine cents, which was erroneously paid into the State Treasury.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer of Maryland to pay the said William P. Dodson, of Norfolk, Virginia, the said sum of eight dollars and eighty-nine cents collateral mortgage taxes erroneously paid by him into the Treasury of Maryland during the years above mentioned.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1904.
