

eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty years, and to commence the redemption of the same in the year 1907; said bonds to be numbered commencing with number one, and one bond is to be redeemed each year from the time aforesaid, and the interest payable annually upon all the bonds issued as aforesaid. The said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxation. The said bonds shall be signed by the president of the Commissioners of Delmar and the treasurer of said Commissioners of Delmar, and the corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by the clerk of the said Commissioners. It shall be the duty of the said treasurer and clerk, respectively, to enter a full register of the said bonds, and when sold, the name and addresses of the purchasers and amount realized opposite the numbers of the bonds in separate books, to be especially provided for that purpose, one to be retained in the official custody of the said Commissioners and the other in the custody of the treasurer. It shall be the duty of the said president, clerk and treasurer, respectively, to examine and compare the accounts in the said books as often as once a year, and certify to the same in the books by the written signatures of the president of the Commissioners, the clerk and the treasurer, with the date opposite their respective signatures.

Bonds.

Town officials
to examine books.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Delmar, Maryland, may if necessary annually levy upon assessable property of the said town an additional tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to redeem five hundred dollars thereof annually; and that the money thus received shall be known and kept as "The Improvement Bond Fund," and shall be applied by the Commissioners of Delmar, Maryland, to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as aforesaid and for no other purpose whatsoever, and that said tax shall be collected as all other taxes are now collected in Delmar, Maryland.

Levy to pay interest on bonds.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be constructed and maintain a system of water works for the town of Delmar, Maryland, and to purchase in fee simple or lease, in the corporate name of the Commissioners of Delmar, Maryland, any land which they may deem expedient for the purpose of establishing and maintaining the said water works. Said Commissioners are also hereby vested with the power of condemnation under rights of eminent domain as provided in Article

Authority to construct and maintain a
water system.