

for every month or fractional part of a month for which his, her, theirs or its license are to run one-twelfth of the annual charges for such license in addition to the amount required to be paid to the State of Maryland, and all such licenses shall expire at the expiration of the time designated, and no license so granted shall be transferable to any other person or persons or to conduct the said business at or in any other house, message or tenement without the transferee complying with the provisions of this Act, as though the transferee was an original applicant.

Expiration of licenses.

10. That no person or persons, house, company or corporation or association, who shall obtain a license under the provisions of this Act shall sell or furnish intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, at any time, to a minor, either for his or her own use or for the use of any other person, or to a drunkard, or to any one then under the influence of liquor, or at any place within two hundred feet of any church in an air line, measuring from any part of the building or room in which the same is kept for sale, or within three hundred feet from any public school property; or sell, offer to sell or barter, or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors; or keep his, her, their or its place open on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday; nor shall any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association open his, her, their or its place of business for the sale of any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors before the hour of six o'clock ante-meridian, and he, she, they or it shall close the same at eleven o'clock past-meridian, and any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association, his, her, their or its officers, agents, servants or employees violating this provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be fined for each offense not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction for a term not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or may be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court or justice of the peace before whom the conviction may be had, with the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, as given in Section 16 of this Act.

Restricting licensee's sale
of liquors.

Fines and imprisonment.

11. That any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association who shall obtain a license under the provisions of this Act shall keep all whiskey, wine, lager beer, ale, ambrosia or any other kind or kinds of spirituous or fermented liquors kept for sale, in a room with an entrance on a pub-

Barrooms to have window
free from
curtains, etc.