

of twenty-five and seventy years, to be selected by the said jury commissioners with special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and integrity of such persons and without the least reference to their political opinions; such persons so selected as jurors shall all be taxpayers and be able to read and write the English language, and of the names of such persons so selected a list shall be made and a copy of such list transmitted by such jury commissioners under their hands and seals to the Judges of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, which list shall be signed by said Judges, or by one of them receiving the same, to be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County, so by him preserved as other proceedings of the court are preserved. And the said jury commissioners shall each of them receive a per diem of five dollars for each day they are actually engaged in the performance of the duties hereby imposed upon them, said compensation to be paid by the County Commissioners of Prince George's County upon an order signed by one of the Judges of the Circuit Court for that county.

Compensation
per diem.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That Section 178 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Conflicting
section repealed.

178. When the list of names selected as above prescribed in Section 177A of said Article, is made and certified to the Judge or Judges of the Circuit Court, the said Judge or Judges in the presence of the members of the bar and such other persons as may think proper to be present, shall cause all the names selected and placed on the list to be legibly written upon ballots, which shall be of equal size and of the same color and appearance, and shall be closely rolled or folded and placed by the said Judge with his own hands, immediately before the drawing provided for by law, into a cubiform box, with a sliding top, of the square of eight inches, to be procured for that purpose by the Clerk of said court under direction of said Judges, and after so depositing said ballots the said box shall be closed, and the said Judge shall then cause the Clerk or one of his deputies, whom the said Judge shall designate, neither the one or the other who may be so required to act to be present at the writing, rolling and folding and depositing said ballots into the box, as herein directed, to appear before him, and then and there, in the presence of the said Judge and such other persons as may choose to be present, after well and thoroughly shaking said box so that the ballots be well mixed, to draw from said box through such an opening or aperture

Drawing jury.