

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

ter 628 of the Acts of 1902, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows, and two new sections are hereby added to be designated as Sections 130 and 131, and to follow Section 129:

Control of same.

113. The County Commissioners shall control and regulate the public roads in Wicomico County.

Sub-dividing district.

114. They shall subdivide each or any of the election districts of the county and appoint a supervisor for each of said road districts.

Citizens to work on highways.

115. All able-bodied male citizens of the said county between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, who do not reside within the limits of an incorporated town, shall be compelled to work not less than two days in every year on the public roads in the road districts in which they reside, and the road supervisor, whenever the public roads shall need repairs, shall summon all such persons in his road district or such number of them as he may deem necessary to make such repairs, giving at least two days' notice of the time and place of meeting and what tools they must furnish; provided, however, that no non-taxpayer shall be compelled to work more than two days in one year, and that no person shall be compelled to work more than four miles from his place of residence.

Exempting incapacitated persons.

116. If any person from whom such labor on the roads may be required under the provisions of the preceding sections shall make it satisfactorily appear to the County Commissioners that he is physically unable to perform such labor, it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners to exempt such person, if he is a non-taxpayer, from the performance of said labor.

Commutation of labor.

117. The road supervisor may make such commutation of labor for teams, carts and wagons as they may deem proper.

Failure to obey summons.

118. Every person liable as aforesaid to labor on said roads who shall fail to obey the summons of the road supervisor or to furnish a substitute, shall pay to the said supervisor upon demand the sum of one dollar for each and every day he shall fail to perform the said labor; and the said supervisor shall collect and account under oath, at least once a year, and as often as may be required, to the said County Commissioners, for all sums of money so collected, and shall apply the same or pay it over to the said Commissioners, as they may direct.
