

which the said trespass or damages shall be alledged to have been done or committed, and if the said enclosures shall not be good and sufficient, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, he or they shall not make out any award or assess any damages whatever. CHAP. 121.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That in all cases of action of trespass quare clausum fregit or legal process of any kind hereafter to be sued out, commenced or prosecuted in the counties aforesaid, to recover damages for trespass upon lands in said counties by any kind or description of live stock, the defendant or defendants may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence under this act, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs in all and every such suit, shall be non-suited and mulct in costs, whenever it shall be clearly proven by legal and competent testimony, that the lands whereon the said trespass shall be alledged to have been done or committed, was not inclosed according to the provisions of this act. This law may be plead.

CHAPTER 120.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, an act for the relief of Edward W. Belt, former Collector of Prince George's county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty two, chapter one hundred and fifty-three. Passed Feb. 24, 1834

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Term extended
That the act to which this is a supplement, be, and the same is hereby continued in full force and operation for and during the space or term of one year, from and after the first day of May next, any thing in the said act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 121.

An act for the benefit of Sally M. Martin.

Passed Feb. 21, 1834

WHEREAS, the provisions of the act passed at this session, entitled, a further supplement to an act relating to free negroes and slaves, are believed not to embrace the objects asked for by the petition of Sally Martin, of the state of Preamble