CHAPTER 133.

An act authorising the levy court of Kent county to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said county to erect a bridge over the head waters of Langford's bay, at or near Shaw's mill. Passed Mar. 4, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the Judges of the levy court of Kent county, be and they are hereby empowered in their discretion to levy a sum of money, not exceeding three hundred dollars for the erection of a bridge over the head waters of Langford's bay, at or near Shaw's mill, on the public road leading from Rock Hall to Chestertown, to be built of such materials and of such construction as they in their judgements may think best calculated to promote the public interest. Levy of $300 authorised

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever such levy is made by the levy court of said county, and a sufficient sum of money raised to justify said court in their judgment to proceed in the object contemplated by this act, it shall and may be lawful for said court to agree upon and make out a certain plan for the building said bridge so soon as the nature of the case will admit, and when so agreed upon it shall be the duty of the said court to give public notice in some newspaper published in said county, for proposals Plan
