

A Supplement to an act to revive an act, entitled, an act to Passed Mar. 5, 1834 Incorporate the Trustees of the Bladensburg Academy, and for other purposes, passed January twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter one hundred and eighty-five, and also a Supplement thereto, passed February the third, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter ninety five.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Benefit reserved Maryland, That the Trustees of Bladensburg Academy, shall be, and they are hereby declared entitled to the benefit of the original act and supplement to which this is a supplement.

Sec. 2. AND WHEREAS, a new mode of drawing lotte- At liberty to draw ries, has been introduced, and it may be doubtful whether lottery by new Bladensburg Academy is authorised by the present acts of plan Assembly, to cause their lottery to be drawn according to such new mode; Be it enacted, that the Trustees of Bladens-burg academy, or any person or persons who have contracted for or purchased or may hereafter contract for or purchase the right to the Scheme of a Lottery authorised to be drawn for their benefit, shall be at liberty to form, adopt and draw a scheme of said Lottery, in such mode and upon such principles as shall or may be approved by the Govern-nor and Council of the State of Maryland.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That should the amount author- Application of pro-ised by this Lottery be more than sufficient for- building ceeds Bladensburg Academy, the Trustees be and they are hereby authorised to use it for the support of a Teacher or Teachers of the said Academy, or in any way best calcullated to promote its utility.

Sec. 4 AND WHEREAS, four deaths have occurred among the Trustees named Trustees of the Bladensburg Academy; Be it enacted, That William Becket, Christopher C. Hyatt, Benjamin Day and Robert Wright, be and they are hereby declared Trusttees to fill said vacancies.