

drawn by this lottery, first, to the extinguishment of the remaining debt, incurred by them in building the school house in said town; second, to finishing the house and enclosing the lot on which said school house is situated; third, to purchasing a pair of globes and maps for the use of said school; and if any money should remain, then the said visitors are hereby authorised to apply said remainder to the benefit of said institution generally, for the promotion of the said school.

CHAP. 147.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the corporate name of the Visitors of the Public School in Middletown shall hereafter be the Trustees of the Middletown Academy, with all the rights and immunities which belong to them under the original act of incorporation, constituting them the Visitors of the Public School in Middletown, as also all benefits conferred on them under the provisions of this law. Name changed

CHAPTER 147.

An act relating to the State Library.

Passed Feb. 28, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the octagonal part of the Hall of the State House, be and the same is hereby authorised and directed to be converted into a suitable apartment for the State Library, upon the present floor, and to be furnished and fitted up for the uses of the said Library; and that the said apartment be constructed, furnished and fitted up as aforesaid, under the care and direction of the joint committee of the Library of the Senate, and the House of Delegates, or a majority thereof; and that when said apartment shall be prepared as aforesaid, the State Librarian shall remove into it all the books, maps, public documents and other property now appertaining to the State Library. Apartment appropriated
How fitted up

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Governor and Council, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed upon the certificates of the said joint committee or of a majority of the members thereof; to draw on the Treasurer of the Western shore, from time to time, for all such sums of money as may be required for defraying the expense of said construction, furnishing and fitting up aforesaid. Appropriation