CHAPTER 166.

An act authorising the Levy Court of Worcester county, to appoint Commissioners for certain purposes therein mentioned. Passed Mar. 8, 1834

WHEREAS, sundry citizens of Newtown, in Worcester county, have set forth by their petition in writing to the General Assembly of Maryland, that the land condemned for the repairs of the causeway, leading from Stevens, alias Pollit's Ferry, to Newtown, in Worcester county, has by frequent use become low, thereby affording a pond for stagnant water, which is injurious to the health of the citizens as aforesaid, and it appears by the petition of the citizens as aforesaid, that the owner of the adjoining land is willing to make an exchange of land for said land condemned as aforesaid, for the purpose of promoting the health and happiness of the citizens of Newton as aforesaid, and the prayer of the petitioners appearing reasonable—Therefore,

Preamble

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Levy court of Worcester county, be and is hereby authorised to appoint three discreet persons, who shall act as commissioners to negotiate an exchange, of the ground condemned for the repairs of the causeway, leading from Stevens, alias Pollit's Ferry, to Newtown, in Worcester county.

Commissioners to negotiate, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if the owner or owners of the adjoining land, shall consent to an exchange of land for the repairs of the causeway, leading from Stevens, alias Pollit's Ferry, to Newtown, in Worcester county aforesaid, the commissioners to be appointed in virtue of the
