

CHAP. 173. and personal property in Anne Arundel county, passed at the present session of the General Assembly, passed at the same session, chapter one hundred and seventy three, be and the same are hereby declared to be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the valuation and assessment thereby required to be made had been fully completed and returned within the time limited by said acts for that purpose.

CHAPTER 173.

Passed Mar. 8, 1834 An additional Supplement to the act entitled, an act for the despatch of business, in Baltimore county court.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the fee of one dollar provided by the fifth section of the act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, to be paid by every insolvent debtor, residing in the city of Baltimore, on the day limited for his appearance before Baltimore county court for a final hearing, shall be paid by such insolvent debtor to the commissioners of insolvent debtors for the city and county of Baltimore, at the time of such insolvent debtor's filing his petition for the benefit of the insolvent laws, instead of the day limited for his appearance for final hearing as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners to pay the same to the clerk of Baltimore county court, who shall account for and pay over the same in the same manner, and under like liability of his bond as prescribed in reference to the fees mentioned in said fifth section; and there shall also be paid to said commissioners upon each petition of an insolvent debtor, for an extension of the time of his appearance the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by them to the said clerk who shall, in manner and under the liability aforesaid, pay over and account for the same; and said fees shall be appropriated for providing the compensation mentioned in the said fifth section; provided, however that the said commissioners may dispense with the payment of said fee of one dollar whenever they are satisfied of the pecuniary inability of the petitioner to pay the same.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, (doubts existing, whether city cases of petitions for divisions of deceased persons es-

Insolvent fee payable on application

Payment over

Fee for extension of time

Payment over

Appropriated

May be dispensed with

Petition for division of deceased persons estates