

affirmance of said decree of the Court of Appeals, or said decree against said Taylor in the Court of Chancery, to pay all costs and charges incurred or to be incurred by the opposite parties, their executors or administrators, or any one of them in the cases aforesaid; and said bond so given shall operate to stay all execution against said Taylor, his executors or administrators, for any costs or charges decreed now against him, either in said Court of Appeals or said Court of Chancery, until affirmance or confirmation as aforesaid.

CHAP. 185.

CHAPTER 185.

An act supplementary to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland Savings Institution. Passed Mar. 13, 1834

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the present stockholders and their successors shall be members of the Maryland Savings Institution, so long as he, she or they shall continue to hold stock in said institution and no longer. Membership defined

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Directors of said institution shall hereafter be elected by the stockholders, in person or by proxy, to be chosen from among the stockholders, at the same time and place as is now prescribed by the charter and by-laws of said institution, and in all elections for directors, each stockholder shall be entitled to as many votes as he or she may hold shares of stock. Elections—votes

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be of no force or validity, unless approved of by a majority of members present of said institution, in general meeting held for that purpose, on or before the fifteenth day of April next. Ratification required

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the provision contained in the last clause of the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, be and the same is hereby repealed. Repeal