

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in full and perpetual force: Provided, that the work contemplated to be executed and made by the provisions of this bill shall be commenced within three years from the passage of this act, otherwise all right intended to be given and secured by this act shall be null and void. CHAP. 187.
Time limited

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That if at any time the said road, or any part thereof, shall by omission or neglect of said company or their agents, not be kept in regular good order, then and in that case, upon application being made to a justice of the peace in and for said county, he shall be authorised to issue his warrant, directed to any constable, sheriff or deputy sheriff, requiring the gates on said road to be thrown open, free from the collection of toll, and so remain until the state and order of the road is reinstated to reasonable and original order. If not kept in order

CHAPTER 187.

An act to Incorporate the Baltimore United Fire Department. Passed Mar. 10, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the association of Delegates chosen by and representing the several fire companies in the city of Baltimore, composed of seven Delegates from each of the said companies, that is to say, Thomas M. Locke, James Lovegrove, Joseph K. Dukehart, Joseph R. Stapleton, John Needles, Samuel S. Riley and James McEllroy, as Delegates for the Mechanical Fire Company; Jesse B. Wright, Samuel Stump, jr. Wm. E. Kaine, Philip Muth, jr. Joshua Harvey, Goddard Raborg and Alexander Smith, as Delegates for the Union Fire Company; Dr. Michael Diffenderfer, Dr. Charles S. Davis, John P. Miller, Charles Diffenderfer, Lewis Holter, George Meyer and Kinsey Fowble, as Delegates for the Friendship Fire company; William Cornthwait, Joseph M. Miles, Carvel Conaway, Thomas Evans, Thomas P. Stran, Robert Craggs and Henry Dundore, as Delegates for the Deptford Fire company: Charles M. Keyser, Joel Wright, John Braunan, James A. May, David Anderson, Samuel Rulon and John Kummer, as Delegates for the Liberty Fire company; John Rodgers, Joseph Matthews, Dr. John L. Yeates, Hugh Bolton, Joseph Persons incorporated ed