

shall they be liable to be withdrawn: Provided, that the whole amount of stock and weekly deposits of any member or stockholder shall at no time exceed in value, the sum of two thousand dollars, as provided in the original charter.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any holder or holders of such stock shall be entitled to vote thereon in person or by proxy, at elections of directors, and at general meetings of the stockholders, in such manner as may be regulated by the president and directors, but the mere ownership of the stock of the society shall not confer any privilege of membership except that of voting upon such stock.

May vote

Not entitled to membership

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all permanent investments of deposits in the said society, heretofore made by any member or weekly depositor or depositors, by converting the same into stock, agreeably to the bye laws of said society, shall be and the same are hereby confirmed and made valid; and that the owner or owners of such stock shall have all the rights and privileges in transferring and voting upon said stock, and receiving dividends thereon, and which are given by this act to the owner or owners of stock formed agreeably to the provisions of this act.

Investments made valid

Rights conferred

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That every person, who is or may hereafter become a member of said society, whensoever he shall have no interest either in stock, or regular weekly deposits of said society, shall cease to be a member thereof.

Membership to cease when interest ceases

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the weekly deposits of any person or persons in this institution shall at all times be liable, and the directors or a majority of them are fully authorised, in their discretion, to apply the said weekly deposits aforesaid to the liquidation of any obligation or promissary note not paid at maturity, either by the drawer or endorser thereof.

Depositor liable for obligations