

CHAP. 194.

Road protected

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this law shall be construed to interfere with the rights and privileges of the company owning the turnpike road passing through said village.

CHAPTER 194.

Passed Mar. 13, 1834 A further supplement to the act entitled, an act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing free schools in the several counties therein mentioned, and for other purposes.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, by several acts of the General Assembly heretofore passed, are authorised and empowered to draw from year to year on the Treasurer of the Western Shore, and the Treasurer is thereby required to pay to their order the proportion of the school fund to which said county is or may hereafter be entitled to, as also the state's donation, Therefore,

Payment directed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Orphans' Court of said county shall from time to time as such moneys come to their hands, distribute the same in the manner it has heretofore been done, to the several trustees of said county, to be disposed of according to law, they the said Orphans' Court taking the receipts of said trustees therefor.

Annual report

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, that the said trustees shall report to the Orphans' court on the first Monday of December in each and every year thereafter, an accurate account of the manner in which they have expended or disposed of said moneys, and the vouchers of their expenditures shall be on oath, and shall be safely kept and filed by the said Orphans' court.

Trustees accountable

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any of the said trustees shall prove delinquent in any of the duties incumbent on them under the law relative to their trust, or shall in any way misapply said moneys committed to their trust, they shall be accountable to the Orphans' court aforesaid in any action or actions at law, in any court of justice, to be brought by and in the name of the said Orphans' court, for the amount of moneys so misapplied, or for damages