

CHAPTER 203.

CHAP. 204.

A further Supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the preservation of the breed of Wild Deer, and for other purposes therein mentioned. Passed Mar. 12, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, in addition to the provisions of the aforesaid act to which this is a further supplement, it shall be lawful for proceedings to be had in Allegany county, in the name of the State of Maryland in pursuance of this act and the act to which this is a further supplement, before any justice of the peace against any and every person, against whom complaint may be made, and proof of the fact of him or them, in person or by agent, being engaged in killing or trying to kill or destroy by catching or running with dogs or otherwise any Wild Deer, out of the season as is prescribed in and by the act to which this is a further supplement, and the said justice may and shall determine on the matter and proceed for the recovery of the sum as adjudged against the defendant or defendants, as in cases of small debts within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, one half of said fine to the informer, and the other to the commissioners of Allegany county, to be added to the Free school fund, and distributed among the several election districts, at the discretion of said commissioners, in said county. Proceedings directed
Disposition of proceeds

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be so construed as to justify any person or persons in shooting, crippling or killing any dogs found in pursuit of deer, and any owner or owners of said dogs that may be injured or killed may have their remedy at law as before the passage of this act. Remedy at law

CHAPTER 204.

An act for building a Bridge over Broad Creek, at or near Cox's Mill, in Harford county. Passed Mar. 10, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That David G. McCoy, John McFadin and John Galbreth, be, and they are hereby appointed com- Commissioners empowered