

CHAPTER 210.

CHAP. 212.

An act for the relief of Henry Metsdorff.

Passed Mar. 12, 1834

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Security in the case of Henry Metsdorff, convicted in Baltimore city court, the court are hereby empowered in their discretion to dispense with the security required by law, and to accept of such other security as they may deem proper,

CHAPTER 211.

An act for the relief of Nathan Haines.

Passed Mar. 12, 1834

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General As- Preamble sembly, that Nathan Haines did by deed duly executed and acknowledged, on the fourteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, convey to a certain Horatio G.
Grieves and James Clarke, half an acre of land, for the purpose of having erected thereon a Primary school, which has not been used for that purpose, but that the school house has been built at another place, and the object of the grantor in the said deed, frustrated—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Reconveyance authorised
That the said Horatia G. Grieves and James Clarke, are hereby authorised and empowered to reconvey to the said Nathan Haines, the aforesaid half acre of land, and upon the same being reconveyed the said Nathan Haines shall be entitled to hold the said half acre of land in fee simple, free and clear of all claim of the Trustees of the said Primary school.

CHAPTER 212.

An act for the benefit of Charles Johns, (negro) of Queen Anne's County. Passed Mar. 12, 1834

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Record and papers That the clerk of Queen Anne's county is hereby authorised and required to record amongst the records of his office, an instrument of writing, executed by Robert Larri-