CHAP. 217.

CHAPTER 217.

An act to alter and change the dividing lines, between the first and fifth Election Districts in Montgomery county.

Passed Mar. 13, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas J. Bowie, Roger B. Thomas and John W. Darby, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorised and appointed commissioners to review, alter and change, the dividing lines between the first and fifth election districts in Montgomery county, and they, or a majority of them are hereby directed to meet at such time and place as may be most convenient, between the time of the passage of this act, and the first Monday of July next, and locate the said lines, beginning at the mouth of Hawling's river, and running up the same to the mouth of Stoney Branch, then up the southermost fork of said branch to the source thereof, near Centreville, and on a farm now belonging to William Birdsall, then with a straight line to the mouth of Beale's Branch, and then with a straight line to the ford of Rock creek, called and known by the name of Rickett's Ford, and the said lines, when located by the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall be the dividing lines between the said first and fifth election districts of said county, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.
