

by the said Sheriff, the sum of twenty-five cents per day, CHAP. 223.
for each prisoner, in lieu of the sum now allowed to be levied and collected according to law.

CHAPTER 222.

A further Supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate Emmitsburg, in Frederick county. - Passed Mar. 14, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, ^{Case of vacancy} That in case of the death, refusal, disqualification, resignation or removal of the Burgess out of the limits of the corporation of Emmitsburg, the commissioners of said corporation immediately thereafter, shall meet and elect some suitable person to act and perform the duties of Burgess for the remainder of the time, for which the Burgess was to serve or was elected.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, ^{Repeal} That all such parts of the act, to which this is a supplement, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter one hundred and seven, that are inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 223.

An act to provide for the appointment of a Wood Corder, at Easton Point, in Talbot county. - Passed Mar. 14, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, ^{Appointment directed} That the Governor and Council, be, and they are hereby required immediately after the passage of this act, and in every year thereafter, to appoint a suitable person to be a corder of fire wood, at Easton Point, in Talbot county, whose duty it shall be whenever any fire wood, ^{Duties} shall be brought to said Point for sale or when called upon, by any seller or purchaser of any firewood brought to said place for sale, to measure and inspect the same forthwith, as he in his judgment may believe to be proper and just, being governed in all respects in the measurement of said wood by the law in such case made and provided for the regulation of the cording of fire wood in the city of Baltimore.