

to their infant son, Richard S. Stewart, and which said CHAP. 243. tracts of land have been found to contain considerably less than the quantity of acres assessed and paid for.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners ^{Levy and pay} be and they are hereby authorised to levy on the assessable property whereon other levies are made by them, such sum of money as may be found, upon examination by said commissioners, to be justly due to said James Stewart as aforesaid, and when levied or collected to pay the same over to him.

CHAPTER 242.

An act supplementary to an act to provide for the opening of ^{Passed Mar. 14, 1834} a road therein mentioned, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter two hundred and fifty-three.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That ^{Assess—levy—and} the commissioners appointed by and in virtue of the act to ^{pay damages} which this is a supplement, be and the same are hereby empowered and authorised to assess the damages for opening said road, and make report of the same, under oath, to the commissioners of Anne Arundel county, who are hereby directed to levy on the assessable property of the county for the use of those in whose favour damages are awarded.

CHAPTER 243.

An act to make public a certain road in Baltimore county. ^{Passed Mar. 14, 1834}

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, ^{Preamble} by the petition of Edward H. Dorsey, Paul Rust, James Beaty, junior, Peter House, Henry Emmart and Mary Rust, that the public convenience requires a road between the Frederick turnpike road and the old Frederick town road, and they being the proprietors of the land, have laid out and opened a road from House's tavern, on the Frederick turnpike road, to Rust's grave yard, thence to the old Frederick road, near to Moke's tavern, which road the public convenience requires to be made public—Therefore,