

CHAP. 245.

in, and make ordinances and regulations for the good government of the said academy, and the instruction of the youth aforesaid, and to appoint such number of their own body not less than five, as they may think proper to be a quorum or committee, for transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the management thereof, and also to delegate to the said professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient, for the government and discipline of the said seminary and the execution of the regulations thereof, and also to make such regulations for the direction, visitation and examination of the said seminary and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; Provided, always, that the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state.

Quorum, &amp;c

Semi-annual meetings

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year in stated semi annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances and at such other times, as by their said ordinances or by their own adjournments, they may direct, and when so assembled, they shall have power from time to time, to appoint a president, treasurer and secretary, to make contracts with the professors or teachers, relative to the instruction of the scholars to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries, to examine the progress of the students and scholars, to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said academy, and the execution of their ordinances, and generally to manage the state and concerns of the said seminary, in such manner as they shall deem best for the advantage of the institution.

CHAPTER 245.

Passed Mar. 14, 1834

An act for the relief of Achilles Gilbert.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this general assembly, That a certain Ann Clement, late of Cecil county, a woman in the most indigent circumstances, was taken sick, became deranged and ultimately died at the house of Achilles Gilbert, of the same county, AND WHEREAS, it is