

every three hundred and twenty pounds nett weight, to be paid by the person or persons in possession of the plaster paris inspected, at the time of inspecting the same, and that the compensation allowed by this act to the inspector aforesaid, shall be recoverable by action of debt in the name of the said inspector, in the same way and before the same tribunal which has jurisdiction over other cases of debt of equal amount.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the third, fourth, fifth and sixth sections of the act, to which this act is a supplement, be and the same are hereby repealed. Sections repealed

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That from any judgment rendered by any justice of the peace, in pursuance of this act, or of the act to which this is a supplement, either party to such judgment may appeal to Baltimore county court, in the same manner, and under the same regulations as is allowed from judgments rendered by justices of the peace, in cases of small debts. Appeal provided

CHAPTER 276.

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act concerning the amendment of Judicial Proceedings. Passed Mar. 15, 1854

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all actions of ejectment, now pending or hereafter to be instituted in any of the courts of law of this state, the declaration may be so amended as to bring the true merits of the controversy fairly to trial; Provided, that no new party be added except in cases where new parties may be made according to existing law and usage, and that in all cases of a joint holding by two or more persons, they may declare on a joint demise whether they hold as joint tenants, tenants in common or in any other manner. Declaration may be amended

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That no advantage shall hereafter be taken by any plea in abatement or otherwise of a nonjoinder or misjoinder of parties against whom any suit or action may hereafter be brought. Case of joint holding

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if title be shewn in any of the lessors of the plaintiff, it shall be sufficient to authorize him to recover to the extent of such title, though Plea of non joinder &c