No. 26.

Resolution in favor of Dennis Boyd and his securities. Passed Feb. 25, 1834

WHEREAS, a judgment was obtained by the State of Maryland against Dennis Boyd, late inspector of tobacco in Baltimore, and his securities, for the amount of two thousand and fourteen dollars and nineteen cents, bearing interest thus: on fourteen hundred and twenty dollars and three cents, from first of February, eighteen hundred and thirty, and on five hundred and ninety four dollars and sixteen cents, from first of May, eighteen hundred and thirty, being a balance of his receipts for tobacco inspection: AND WHEREAS, it is sound policy to extend all the indulgence to every citizen that can be done consistently with the interests of the state—Therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all proceedings on the aforesaid judgment against Dennis Boyd and his securities be suspended until the first Monday of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven: Provided, that the defendants pay in the manner following: that is to say, one third part of the principal and all the interest and costs due thereon, on or before the first Monday of January next, the like sum of principal and all the interest due on the remainder of the principal on the first Monday of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and the remaining part of the principal and whatever interest is due, on the first Monday of January, eighteen hundred thirty-seven, and if the said Dennis Boyd and his securities shall fail or neglect to pay the proportion or instalments as directed to be paid by them, the execution shall and may forthwith be issued on the judgment against the party neglecting to pay as aforesaid, in the same manner as if this resolution had not passed: Provided further, that the said
