

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the guardian of an infant owner, shall have full power and authority on behalf of his ward, to make application for repaving under the provisions of this act. CHAP. 41.
Guardian as owner

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, shall have full power and authority, to pass any ordinance or ordinances, necessary and proper to carry into effect the object of this act. Authority to pass ordinances

CHAPTER 41.

An act supplementary to an act passed at December session, 1831, chapter 244. Passed Feb. 10, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever any one or more of the trustees selected under the provisions of the fourth act, to which this is a supplement, shall die, resign or remove from the district, it shall and may be lawful for the remaining trustees to supply such vacancy at any subsequent meeting of the board of trustees. Vacancies to be supplied

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where a school has been located by the commissioners appointed by the act to which this is a supplement, and the trustees not having complied with the said act, that it shall and may be lawful, and is hereby made the duty of the Orphan's court in Caroline county to equally divide the amount which the election district may be entitled to among the schools that have complied with the provisions of the original law; and that the said schools in the different election districts of said county shall be entitled to continue to receive the whole amount allowed to said election district, until those not yet organized may become entitled, by a compliance with the provisions of this act, or the act to which this is a supplement. Districts not complying, excluded from distribution

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That in case the schools, or any one of them now in operation, and which is claiming and receiving as by the original act, they are entitled to do, should fail or fall through, then it shall be lawful for the Orphan's court to divide equally the funds between the district schools still in operation in the election district. Districts failing, or falling through