ter one hundred and eighty-three, entitled, an act for founding a college in the city of Frederick by the name of Frederick College, whether the old corporation does not lose its franchises by the change of its corporate name.

Legal privileges and liabilities confirmed

Section 1. Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the old corporation does not lose its powers, rights, and privileges, by the change of its corporate name, and that all bills heretofore filed in courts, having chancery jurisdiction, or suits brought in county courts in the name of the Visitors of Frederick county school, shall not abate by reason of the change of its name, but that the same shall be continued and brought to a close in the name in which the bill or suit was commenced, its corporate name being changed by the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter one hundred and eighty-three, notwithstanding.

Proceeds how payable

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all money or property, and all debts, damages and costs, which may be recovered in any suits now depending in the name of the Visitors of Frederick county school, in any court of law or equity in this state, shall be applied and appropriated for the use of Frederick college, in the same manner, as if the same had been recovered in the name of Frederick college.

CHAPTER 57.

Passed Feb. 18, 1834. An act to confirm the proceedings of certain Commissioners in Somerset county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the commissioners appointed by the Levy court of Somerset county, in conformity with the provisions of the act of Assembly of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter thirty-three, section three, confirmed by act eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter five, were required to meet at the Witch bridge, in said county, on the first Monday of May next, after the confirmation of said act, or within ten days thereafter, and complete the duties assigned them; and whereas, the said commissioners did not meet at the time specified, for remedy whereof:

Proceedings confirmed

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the duties performed by George M. Willing, John Leatherbury and Henry Hyland, commissioners appointed by virtue of the power conferred by the above mentioned
