CHAPTER 83.

An act to alter and change the name of the corporation, known by the name of the President and Directors of the Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company.

Name changed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the corporation heretofore known by the name of The President and Directors of the Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, shall be called and known by the name of The Susquehanna Bank; provided, that nothing herein contained shall in any wise alter the liabilities, rights or duties of said corporation as prescribed in the original act of incorporation.

Reservation

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of a writ of Scire Facias or Quo Warranto, on the part of the state to forfeit the charter of said company, if any act shall be ascertained to have been committed which would forfeit the said charter.

CHAPTER 84.

An act relating to Poppleton street in the city of Baltimore.

Preamble

WHEREAS, John B. Bastian, of the city of Baltimore, has represented to this General Assembly, that Poppleton street in said city, is upon the present plan of the city, laid down with a width of sixty feet, and must according to that plan be opened hereafter under the present laws, and must with that width pass through the said Bastian's grounds; AND WHEREAS, the said Bastian, has prayed that the width of said street throughout its extension north of Baltimore street, be contracted to forty feet, the said Bastian offering in consideration therefor, to cede his right for the uses and purposes of Poppleton street, to the ground contained in an alley, twenty three wide, opened by him from his property to Saratoga street, and which is included within the lines of Poppleton street;—Therefore,

Width prescribed
