

1872.

- April 27.—H. J. Rogers, Justice of the Peace 13th district, vice P. G. Mitchell, declined.
- April 29.—Philip Burgan, Justice of the Peace 12th district, vice Henry Logman, declined.
- May 3.—George W. Jordan, Officer of Registration 5th district, vice John Cole, declined.
- May 8.—Orman Knight, Justice of the Peace 1st district, new officer under Act of 1872, chapter 315.
- May 8.—John N. Carroll, Justice of the Peace 4th district, new officer under Act of 1872, chapter 315.
- May 8.—Albert J. Boyer, Justice of the Peace 3rd district, under Act 1872, chapter 315.
- May 20.—Richard Hutchins, Officer of Registration 10th district, vice H. C. Hutchins, resigned.
- May 21.—Henry Bushey, Justice of the Peace 4th district, vice A. F. Shibly, resigned.
- May 31.—William H. Taylor, Justice of the Peace 9th district, vice himself, failed to qualify.
- May 31.—Rezin J. Smith, Justice of the Peace 10th district, vice himself, failed to qualify.
- May 31.—Aquila Galloway, Justice of the Peace 8th district, vice himself, failed to qualify.
- Sept. 14.—William Pole, Justice of the Peace 3rd district, vice Albert J. Boyer, deceased.
- Dec. 4.—James H. Onion, Justice of the Peace 11th district, vice W. Y. Day, failed to qualify.
- Dec. 4.—David Feelemyer, Justice of the Peace 1st district, vice John J. Pilert, failed to qualify.

1873.

- Aug. 20.—F. G. F. Waltemeyer, Justice of the Peace 13th district, vice Patrick O'Brien, failed to qualify.

WM. PINKNEY WHYTE.

On motion by Mr. Davis,

The Senate advised and consented to the foregoing appointments agreeably to the nominations.