

1872.

- May 25.—Joseph Frankish, to reside in the city of Philadelphia, vice J. E. Carpenter, failed to qualify.
- June 15.—James M. Varnum, to reside in New York city, vice William H. Russell, failed to qualify.
- June 25.—William H. Clarkson, to reside in New York city, vice Joseph C. Lawrence, failed to qualify.
- July 1.—Warren G. Elliott, to reside in Norfolk, Virginia, vice Benjamin B. Foster, failed to qualify.
- July 12.—Samuel A. Macallister, to reside in Wilmington, Delaware, to fill vacancy.
- July 56.—J. Paul Diver, to reside in the city of Philadelphia, vice William H. Whitehead, failed to qualify.
- Sept'r 4.—Francis P. Burke, to reside in New York city, vice J. C. Lawrence, failed to qualify.
- Sept'r 4.—John S. Rady, to reside in Richmond, Virginia, vice John Johns, Jr., failed to qualify.
- Nov. 26.—Frank Morrison, to reside in Boston, Massachusetts, vice Abraham Jackson, failed to qualify.
- Oct. —Andrew W. Kent, to reside in New York city, vice J. L. Starr, failed to qualify.
- Dec. 20.—John Henry Puhl, to reside in Wilmington, Delaware, to fill vacancy.
- Dec. 17.—Edward Goodman, to reside in Hartford, Connecticut, vice N. E. Simmons, failed to qualify.
- Dec. 20.—John R. Boas, to reside in St. Louis, Missouri, vice E. Silver, failed to qualify.

1873.

- Jan. 29.—Jacob Duboise, to reside in New York city, vice Sylvester Lay, failed to qualify.
- Feb. 4.—Henry Reed, to reside in the city of Philadelphia, vice John Hancock, failed to qualify.
- Feb. 4.—Rufus K. McHarg, to reside in New York city, vice James S. Graves, failed to qualify.
- Feb. 7.—John C. Foster, Jr., to reside in New York city, vice Jackson Jarvis, failed to qualify.
- Feb. 28.—Edward J. Jones, to reside in Boston, Massachusetts, vice Samuel Jannison, failed to qualify.
- March 4.—Lucius W. Horo, to reside in New York city, vice Michael Phillips, failed to qualify.