

Hannah More Academy, of Baltimore county, passed at the December session of the General Assembly, A. D. 1837, chapter 189.

On motion of Mr. Stewart, of Baltimore city,

Leave was granted to the Committee on the Judiciary to introduce a bill granting the assent of the General Assembly of Maryland to a legacy to Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, in the City of Baltimore, by John S. Hugg, late of said city, deceased.

On motion of Mr. Glotfelty,

Leave was granted to Garrett county delegation and Messrs. Weir, of Allegany, and Fletchall, of Montgomery, to introduce a bill authorizing the County Commissioners of Garrett county to re-district, re-number or increase the election precincts of said county.

On motion of Mr. Keech,

Leave was granted to the Committee on the Judiciary to introduce a bill to repeal chapter 116 of the laws of 1868, entitled an Act to amend the thirty-seventh Article of the Public General Laws, by repealing the second section of said Article, relating to the competency of witnesses and the examination of parties, as amended by the Act of 1864, chapter 109, and inserting in said Article, in lieu of the section so repealed, the following section, relating to competency of witnesses and the examination of parties, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

On motion of Mr. McColgan,

Leave was granted to the Committee on the Judiciary to introduce a bill to repeal an Act, (chapter 203 of the Acts of 1872,) entitled an Act to repeal section 59 of the Act of 1868, chapter 471, relating to corporations, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

On motion of Mr. Henkle,

Leave was granted to the Committee on the Judiciary to report a bill to provide for the employment of convict labor upon the construction and repairs of the public roads in the State.

On motion of Mr. Fowler,

Leave was granted to the Committee on Corporations to introduce a bill to amend the charter of the Baltimore and Catonsville Passenger Railway Company.
