

Mr. Seth submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the Postmaster of the House be, and he is hereby, required to furnish to each member of the House the amount of fifty dollars in postage stamps, and the same amount be furnished the Chief and Reading Clerks; also, that the amount heretofore usual be furnished to the other officers of the House.

Which was read.

Mr. Fowler submitted the following amendment:

Ordered, That the Postmaster of this House furnish each member with twenty-five dollars worth of postage stamps, and to each employe or officer fifteen dollars worth.

Which was read.

Mr. Valliant submitted the following amendment:

Ordered, That each member of this House shall receive twenty-five dollars worth of postage stamps, and that each employe shall receive stamps to amount of five dollars.

Which was read.

The question recurring upon concurring in the amendment submitted by Mr. Valliant,

On motion of Mr. Stake,

A division of the question was ordered.

The question then recurring upon the first proposition of the amendment, that each member of the House shall receive twenty-five dollars worth of stamps,

On motion of Mr. McCosker,

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows:
