Mr. Cooper (the rules being suspended) submitted the following

REPORT.

ANNAPOLIS, January 20, 1874.

The Committee on Organization would respectfully ask that they be authorized to instruct the Anne Arundel delegation to invite the Rev. Messrs. Southgate, Henderson, Hedges and Kinzer to officiate as Chaplains of this House.

Respectfully submitted.

J. H. COOPER, Chairman.

Which was adopted.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

January 20, 1874.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We propose, with your concurrence, an interchange of service between the Chaplains of the two Houses, to be arranged between themselves.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,

Secretary Senate.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. T. H. Hamilton submitted the following message:

HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January 20th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We would respectfully inform you that we have concurred in your message for an interchange of service between the
