

So the order was adopted.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message :

BY THE SENATE,

January 22, 1874.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message informing the Senate of your disagreement to our action on the Joint Resolution of your Honorable Body on the subject of the Taney statue, and of your adherence to the Joint Resolutions of your own Honorable Body. We also adhere to our action, and propose submitting the action of our respective Bodies to a Committee of Conference of two on the part of the Senate, and three on the part of the House.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Earle and Steiner.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,

Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Merryman submitted the following message :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January 22, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received your message notifying this House of your adherence to the Joint Resolutions of the Senate in reference to the statue of Chief Justice Taney, and the proposed commemoration of its delivery to the State, and also your proposition for a Committee on Conference upon the existing disagreement between the two Houses upon the subject.

We agree to the Conference, and have appointed Messrs. Merryman, Freamer and Groome as a Committee on behalf of this House.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The Speaker announced that all the business upon the Speaker's desk was disposed of.

On motion of Mr. Turner, of Baltimore county, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the House adjourned.
