So the amendment was rejected.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the Report,

Mr. Stake submitted the following order :

Ordered, That the Joint Standing Committee be directed to contract with Messrs. S. S. Mills and L. F. Colton, for the printing of this present session, upon the terms and conditions of their proposals now before the House.

Which was read.

Mr. Freaner submitted the following amendment:

Add at end of order, the words, "provided that the gross amount for printing shall not exceed dollars, and if the gross amount thus provided for, should at any time be exceeded, the Committee shall report the same to this House for its further consideration."

Which was read.

The question recurring upon filling the blank in said amendment,

Mr. McColgan moved that the blank be filled with the words, "thirty-eight thousand."

Which was decided in the negative.

Mr. Johnson moved that the blank be filled with the words "twenty-five thousand."

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,
Pending which,
