

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Miller also presented a similar petition of one hundred and seventy-nine other ladies of the same district, for the same object.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Nicodemus presented the petition of Rev. Thos. J. Cross, J. H. Johnson, Frederick White and one hundred and thirteen other citizens of Mechanicstown District, Frederick county, praying the passage of a law submitting to the voters of the several counties and wards of the City of Baltimore, whether or not intoxicating liquors shall be sold in said counties or wards.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Nicodemus also presented the petition of Emma C. Crow, Hester A. Wolf and one hundred and forty-four other ladies of Mechanicstown District, Frederick county, for a similar law.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Merryman presented the petition of Thos. H. Bitt, to have his name reinstated upon the pension rolls of the State, and for arrearages due on account of his name having been inadvertently left out of Laws of 1870.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Keech presented the petition of J. D. Durkes and eighty other citizens of Baltimore county, protesting against the passage of a law to prevent stock from running at large in Baltimore county.

Which was read and referred to the Baltimore county delegation.

Mr. Maclin presented the petition of Susanna Dorsey, of Howard county, for a pension.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Bedsworth presented the petition of Wm. F. Roberts and others, in relation to taking oysters in Wicomico county,

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries.