

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

February 4th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose, with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, to go into a Joint Convention immediately, for the election of Governor of this State, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte, Governor of the State, now on file in the office of the Secretary of State, and to take effect on the 4th of March next.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

February 4th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to go into Joint Convention to elect a Governor, and respectfully concur therein.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

At 1½ o'clock, P. M., the Senators of Maryland, accompanied by their Secretary, appeared in the House of Delegates.

Whereupon,

The Speaker of the House of Delegates, as Chairman of the Joint Convention, announced, that in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution, Article 2, sections 4 and 6, and by agreement between the two Houses, the Joint Convention would now proceed to elect, by a viva voce vote of each member of the General Assembly present, a person to the office of Governor, to fill the unexpired term of the Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte.

The Secretary of the Senate then proceeded to call the roll of Senators.

Whereupon,

Hon. J. Lee Carroll, Prest., voted for Hon. James B. Groome.
