

They also testify that it is impossible to name any specific sum as the cost of an indefinite amount of work, and Mr. Wiley, who was himself the Chairman of the House Committee on Printing in 1868, and consequently familiar with the character and amount of work usually required, states positively that no one can do the entire work for $20,000, as proposed in one offer submitted to your Committee.

Your Committee, therefore, most respectfully present again their original report, with the above explanations in regard to its specific provisions, and the further explanation that the page of the Journal or Documents shall consist of 1,450 ems, and the page of the Laws shall consist of 1,600 ems, with marginal notes, as estimated by regular printers' rules.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Concurred in, and,

On motion of Mr. Stewart,

The Report of the Committee submitted on the 29th ultimo,
Was then adopted.

Mr. McCosker, Chairman of the Committee on Insolvency, to whom was referred the bill entitled an Act to render inoperative in Allegany county the provisions of Article 48, Code of Public General Laws, commonly called the "Insolvent Laws," reported back the same and asked to be discharged from the further consideration thereof, and moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The Committee was discharged, and the bill so referred.

Mr. Stewart, of Baltimore City, Chairman of the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries, to whom was
