On motion of Mr. Hodson,

Leave was granted to the Committee on Claims to introduce a bill authorizing the Committee on Claims to pay to Clement Sullivane, editor of the "Cambridge Chronicle," two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; the above sum being due said Sullivane for printing, by direction of the Comptroller of the Treasury, the list of defaulters to the State.

On motion of Mr. Loane,

Leave was granted to the Committee on Ways and Means to introduce a bill entitled an Act appropriating a sum of money to pay for certain buildings in connection with the Washington University, in the City of Baltimore, to make further improvements thereon, and to provide for the free education in said University of students from the several Legislative Districts of this State.

Mr. Nutwell, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably,

A bill entitled an Act for the relief of the Central Presbyterian Church of the City of Baltimore, to authorize the recording of certain amendments to the original plan, agreement and regulation for the incorporation of said church, adopted by the congregation thereof, on the 5th day of May, A. D., 1856, and on the 30th day of March, A. D. 1857, and giving said amendments and all Acts done in furtherance thereof, the same force and validity as if said amendments had been duly recorded within six months after the adoption of the same.

Which was read a first time.

Mr. Gill moved that the rules be suspended, under the provisions of the Constitution, section 27, Article 3, and that the bill be read a second time this day.
