Mr. Merryman, Chairman on the part of the House, of a Joint Select Committee, (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following REPORT.

The Joint Special Committee to arrange for formal reception by the State of Statue of late Chief Justice Taney, now upon the Capitol Grounds, and invite some distinguished citizen of Maryland to deliver an oration upon the life and public services of the late Chief Justice, respectfully report:

That they have endeavored, but they regret to say, without success, to carry out the wishes of both branches of the General Assembly, as embodied in the Joint Resolution under which they were appointed.

The life of the late Chief Justice Taney was dedicated for so many years, and in such lofty stations, to the service of his country, that it forms no small part in itself of the public history of his time. His judicial connection, especially with the constitutional questions which arose while he presided over the tribunal, of ultimate resort, was of extent and importance which it would not be easy to exaggerate. Those questions involved, as we all know, not only the relative powers of the State and Federal Governments, as between themselves, but the constitutional relation of Federal authority
