

number attending the city schools from this county is under three hundred instead of three thousand, as claimed by the City Council. Two years ago, when a similar resolution was passed, the number of county children attending the city schools was found to be so beggarly small, that action was rescinded in order, I believe, to conceal the number so attending. We have quite a number attending at Nos. 8 and 13, 1st district, from the city, more than enough to balance those attending in city from the county. At our next meeting of the Board, I intend to introduce a resolution on the subject. The falsity of the assertion, that three thousand of our children attend city schools, will be apparent from the table accompanying this note. I suppose it will be admitted that children from a distance do not attend the city, it must be those from walking distance, say the coveted two miles.

The whole number attending school in Fall term, 1873, in the county, was 123 schools, 5,372.

The number attending inside the two miles, per table, was 16 schools, same term, 1,495.

13th District, No.	3, Unionville	34
"	4, Sextonville.....	31
1st District, No.	1, Calverton.....	61
"	8, Three Mills, Fred'k Road...	82
"	10, Loudon Park.....	81
"	13, Butcher's Lane.....	231
3rd District, No.	4, Clifton,.....	105
"	5, Woodberry.....	135
9th District, No.	1, Huntingdon Ave.....	113
"	12, Waverly	158
"	4, Homestead.....	89
"	2, Hampdon Village.....	105
12th District, No.	1, Canton	105
"	2, Philadelphia Road.....	60
"	14, Highlandtown.....	55
"	12, Neisendorfers	40
Total.....		1,495

From this table it will be seen that more than one-fourth of the children attending school in the county attend in the schools located within the two miles from the city limits, and the numbers are large enough to justify me in saying that the children of that portion of the county do not depend on the city schools for an education.

Justly and truly yours,

W. M. ISAAC.

I find, I say, that the number attending school in the city from the county is balanced by those from the city attending
